

BORROWED SCENERY

借りられた景色

Join us for a programme of earth, wood & fire...

You are invited to take part in a programme of free creative workshops in the heart of Gunnersbury Park to rekindle the spirit of the Japanese Garden, which was once a beautiful, historic area of the parkland.

This Spring, Artist-in-residence, Simeon Featherstone and PC Projects are offering collaborative opportunities for the Japanese Community to create a new artwork for Gunnersbury Park through raku-fired ceramics, traditional poetry and architecture.

Saturday 22nd February, 1pm–3.30pm

The Japanese Garden through time and space

Saturday 29th February, 1pm–3.30pm

Learn traditional poetry with artist Subhadassi

Saturday 7th March, 1pm–3.30pm

Thinking through Making

Saturday 14th March, 1pm–3.30pm

Ceramics and Ritual

Friday 27th March, 10am–4pm

Building & Firing a Raku Kiln

Saturday 4th April, 11am–3pm

Firing the Pottery

Saturday 18th April, 12–4pm

Matsuri, Japanese Garden Festival for all the family

Workshops will be held at the Gunnersbury Park Museum. Admission free.

For more information please contact

Simeon on projects@parasiteceramics.co.uk

call 07815832535 or visit www.pc-projects.co.uk

GUNNERSBURY
PARK & MUSEUM